Remarks:

Have been informed by Colonel Grogan that his office has no interest in having the three former members of Congress continued on the distribution list. Have asked interested parties in  for a ruling on this. If we drop them, I shall let you know.

Note: Letter from Librarian of Democratic National Committee received 7 August states: "Due to the increased workload of the library, we find it impossible to read your publication. The removal of our name from your mailing list will be appreciated."
